Russian-born classical pianist Yana Reznik has stunned audiences across the globe with her passionate, captivating performances. A graduate of Manhattan School of Music, University of Southern California, Colburn School of Performing Arts, and winner of the Artists International Competition, Ms. Reznik gave a sold-out Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall Debut in New York in 2004. Ms. Reznik believes in presenting classical music to broader audiences by creating inspiring programming and breaking the boundaries between the performer and the listeners.

"Having heard every great pianist active since 1971, including Horowitz, Rubinstein, and Serkin, I can confidently say that Ms. Reznik is determined to follow in their footsteps; indeed, think of her as a young Martha Argerich and you will have some idea of the experience that lies in store for you." - Michael Walsh (Time Magazine)

"Reznik's impressive technique highlighted the tonal tenacity of the V-Piano Grand – the instrument was able to emote both the roaring bass and bell-like treble so inherent and needed in classical piano performance." - Jon Regen (Keyboard Magazine)

With the first note played on V-Piano Grand, I get transformed into the world of music making. The flawless touch, rich and beautiful sound, the range of dynamics allow me to express my soul through this incredible Piano.
